10 JOSEPH LOCHUCH EWALAN,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 ROBERT SCHREIBER, et al.,

14 Defendant.

CASE NO. C20-5678JLR

ORDER

15 Before the court are pro se Plaintiff Joseph Lochuch Ewalan's second proposed 16 witness subpoenas, in response to the court's March 22, 2024 order.<sup>1</sup> (2d Prop.
17 Subpoenas (Dkt. # 218); see also 3/14/24 Order (Dkt. # 201) (granting in part Mr.

19 <sup>1</sup> The court is also in receipt of Mr. Ewalan's request to the Clerk "to help mail 20 subpoena[s] in blank" to him. (Request (Dkt. # 220) at 1.) The court thanks Mr. Ewalan for his
21 diligence in responding to the court's orders regarding his subpoenas despite lacking Internet 22 access. (See id.) The court acknowledges and extends compassion to Mr. Ewalan for the many unique challenges he faces as a pro se incarcerated litigant. Because the court concludes in this order that Mr. Ewalan has substantially complied with the court's instructions concerning witness subpoenas, it is unnecessary to mail the subpoenas in blank to him. The court will facilitate issuance and service of Mr. Ewalan's witness subpoenas as stated in this order.

1 Ewalan's motion to subpoena witnesses and setting forth an expedited process to
2 facilitate his trial witness subpoenas, conditioned on Mr. Ewalan's compliance with the
3 court's instructions and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45); 3/24/24 Order (Dkt. # 217)
4 (concluding that Mr. Ewalan's first proposed subpoenas failed to comply and extending 5 the witness subpoena deadline).) The subpoenas are directed to Dr. Lara B. Strick, Chad
6 Anderson, and Dr. Joseph T. Ho. (See generally 2d Prop. Subpoenas.) The court has 7 reviewed Mr. Ewalan's second proposed subpoenas and concludes that Mr. Ewalan has
8 substantially complied with the court's March 24, 2024 order and Rule 45. The court
9 will therefore facilitate the issuance and service of Mr. Ewalan's subpoenas, as set forth
10 in Appendix A to this order. (See 3/24/24 Order at 4-5.) As the court previously noted
11 (3/14/24 Order at 1), Mr. Ewalan is proceeding in forma pauperis, entitling him to 12 service by the United States Marshals Service ("USMO"). (See IFP Order (Dkt. # 4)); 28
13 U.S.C. § 1915(d).

14 Mr. Ewalan is advised that the court has transcribed his subpoenas in typeface
15 format for legibility purposes. The attached subpoenas also cure minor deficiencies the 16 court identified in Mr. Ewalan's second proposed subpoenas, such as his failure to 17 identify the issuing court as the United States District Court for the Western District of 18 Washington. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(a)(1)(A)(i). Mr. Ewalan is further advised that the 19 court has adjusted the dates and times that his witnesses are instructed to appear, for a 20 few reasons. Trial is scheduled to begin on April 22, 2024, and because he is the 21 Plaintiff, Mr. Ewalan will present his case and question his witnesses first. The court
22 expects that jury selection and opening statements will consume the first trial day,

1 meaning that Mr. Ewalan will likely begin questioning his witnesses on April 23, 2024.
2 With that in mind, the court has scheduled Mr. Ewalan's witnesses in the order that Mr.
3 Ewalan had designated in his second proposed subpoenas.

4 The court ORDERS as follows:

5 1. The Clerk is DIRECTED to issue the subpoenas set forth in Appendix A to 6 this order.

7 2. Upon the Clerk's issuance of the attached subpoenas, USMO is 8 DIRECTED to serve the subpoenas on the designated witnesses by no later than April 1,
9 2024. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(d). USMO is DIRECTED to pay any and all of Mr.
10 Ewalan's witness fees. See Local Rules W.D. Wash. LCR 3(c)(3).

11 3. Nothing in this order shall be construed to prevent Defendants from seeking 12 to quash or otherwise objecting to Mr. Ewalan's subpoenas on any usual basis permitted
13 by law.

14 Dated this 27th day of March, 2024.

Additional information regarding attempted service, etc.:

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)*(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.
